RON HANNERS
E/VP Infrastructure & Technology

Ron Hanners brings a wealth of experience to JCPenney, including twelve years’ retail store experience in Men’s Specialty.

Hanners joined JCPenney in 1990, bringing to it practiced disciplines of integrating specialty retail with technology to solve retail business challenges. Hanners joined the Home Office as a Manager of Communications Research and Development and has held positions of increasing responsibility, including Creative Technical Manager and Special Projects Manager.

In May of 1998, Ron was assigned to the Internet Commerce organization. Hanners’ current responsibilities include the overall presentation of JCPenney on the Internet, utilizing current technology to promote a customer-focused shopping environment.

Hanners attended the University of Notre Dame, as well as Purdue and Indiana University.
